Re: Assistance during times of bereavement

WGH staff is committed to compassionately assisting the families and loved ones during their time of bereavement. When someone passes away at the hospital, the nursing staff will ensure that your loved one is treated with dignity. It is the family's responsibility to contact the funeral home. Once you have chosen a funeral home, please advise the hospital of your choice.

To assist you in making funeral arrangements, WGH has compiled a listing of funeral homes within our County. We suggest that you call one or more of these reputable establishments to determine which business best meets your family's needs.
