Woodstock Hospital
Inpatient Rehabilitation Eligibility Criteria

- A progressive, goal-oriented and time-limited program
- Available health disciplines: Physiatry, Physiotherapy (PT), Occupational Therapy (OT), Speech-Language Pathology (S-LP), Recreational Therapy (Rec T), Social Work (SW), and Dietitian
    - A minimum requirement of 2 health disciplines for admission to the Inpatient Rehabilitation Unit
- Enables individuals with impairments to optimize physical, sensory, intellectual, psychological and social functional levels

Does Patient Meet the Following Criteria?

1. Is 18 years or older ☐ Yes ☐ No
2. Is able to consistently and actively participate in therapy sessions, which can include 2-3 therapy sessions per day, 5-7 days / week medically and surgically stable ☐ Yes ☐ No
    - Previous Inpatient Rehabilitation admissions and outcomes may be reviewed
3. Has demonstrated cognitive function that allows for learning and integration of new skills into functional outcomes ☐ Yes ☐ No
4. Has established functional goals, which are specific measurable, realistic and timely ☐ Yes ☐ No
5. Is medically and surgically stable ☐ Yes ☐ No
    - No unresolved acute medical issues
    - Has an established medical plan of care
6. Is willing to participate and has an understanding of the rehabilitation processes ☐ Yes ☐ No
7. Has an established discharge plan ☐ Yes ☐ No
    - Established discharge plan is viable based on achievable functional goals (physical and cognitive)